

WP1 - WORKSHOP

PDO AND PGI CERTIFICATIONS: AN ANALYSIS OF EUROPEAN EXPERIENCES

The meeting, organised by Parma Unit inside the activities of WP1 DOLPHINS framework, has the aim to compare the experiences in France, Switzerland and Italy, on the issues of PDO, PGI certifications. The responsables of some Certification bodies and researchers will attend the meeting.

The meeting will be held on February, Tuesday 26th, in Parma, from 14.30, to 18, at the Department of Quantitative Study and Economics .

During the meeting the following issues will be analysed and compared :

1. The interpretations of the art.10 of Reg. EEC n.2081/92 across EU countries
2. Certification procedures and criteria used in different EU countries for PDO and PGI products
3. The problems related with "proof of origin" and "justification of origin"

At the meeting will participate:

Corrado Giacomini, University of Parma

Filippo Arfini, University of Parma

Cecilia Mancini, University of Parma

Casabianca Francois, INRA-LRDE, Corte, Francia

Barjolle Dominique, Department of Rural economy of Ecole Polytechnique Federale, Zurich, Switzerland

And...

- Giovanni Frati, Chief of the Certification Body for Prosciutto di Parma, Prosciutto San Daniele and many others PDO/PGI products.
- Pietro Bonato, Chief of the Certification Body for Grana Padano and many others PDO/PGI products.
- Renzo Mora, Chief of the Certification Body of Parmigiano Reggiano
- M.Charles Peraud, Vice president of IGP Committee of INAO

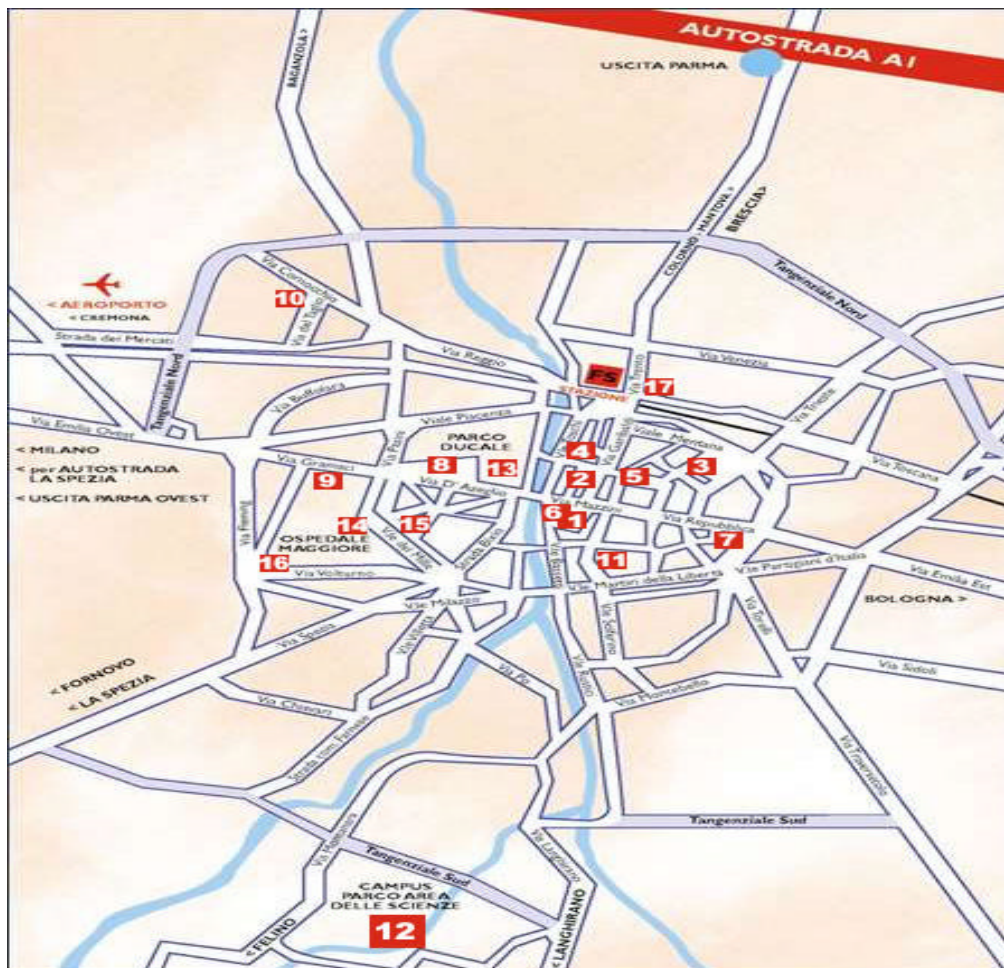

The meeting will take place in Parma at the Faculty of Economics, (6 Kennedy St) that is located in centre of the town (ten minute walking from the train station). Parma is well linked by train with Bologna and Milano. In Parma there is also an airport but there are more flies to Milano-linate or Bologna.

For subscription, information, hotel reservation and logistics send an e-mail to Cecila Mancini (mariacecilia.mancini@unipr.it) or call. 0521/902414

In any case :

For reach Parma by train it is possible visit the Website <http://www.trenitalia.it> and have the time schedule.

For reach the University : we are the number 8

Best regards to you all.

Corrado Giacomini